

Tom Reeve Award for Outstanding Contribution to Cancer Care 2024 Nomination Form

The Tom Reeve Award, offered annually by COSA, formally recognises a national leader who has made a significant contribution to cancer care.

To be eligible nominees must:

- have made a significant contribution to cancer care through research, clinical leadership and/or community service
- have made a substantial contribution over a relatively long period of time
- be nominated by a COSA member and have support from a member of COSA Council
- be an Australian resident

Checklist – each nomination should include:

An explanation of the nominee's work in the area of cancer control or research

An evaluation of the accomplishments of the nominee

Two letters of reference from individuals outside the nominee's institution (where applicable). These letters should contain a critical appraisal of the nominee's work

Please return the completed nomination form along with supporting documents listed above by email to cosa@cancer.org.au

Nominations close 5:00pm (AEST) Monday 12 August 2024.
